

Rules for Supervised Study

- Supervised study commences 30 minutes sharp after school each day and will continue uninterrupted for two hours.
- Exam-like conditions will exist. Absolute silence is paramount. No disruption whatsoever will be tolerated.
- No food or fizzy drinks permitted.
- Students must make every effort to study at all times.
- Mobile phones must be switched off completely and be visibly placed on students' desks.
- Items such as I-pods, MP3s or laptops are forbidden.
- If a student is absent from study without advanced notice to study coordinators, their parents/guardians will receive a text message to inform them of their son/daughter's absence.
- Before returning to study after an unauthorised absence, parents/guardians are required to provide a written and signed explanation for their son/daughter's absence.
- Rooms must be left neat and tidy with chairs being placed on tables.
- Failure to comply with any of the above rules will lead to sanctions ranging from verbal warning, temporary exclusion to permanent exclusion. Fees will not be returned where students have been excluded from study.
